

My daughter is hearing-impaired and she relies on captioning for understanding television content. We appreciate that captioning is offered, and hope that one day all programs will use it. Thanks for your work in this regard.